

CHAIRPERSON'S OPENING REMARKS

- The Necsa Board is charged with leading the entity to long-term sustainability in compliance with the founding Act and other governance statutes that guide Schedule 2 companies in South Africa
- The strategy that the Board approved following the annual review in 2022 has enabled the positive performance we are sharing with you today for the financial 2023/24
- The Board has played an active role in monitoring implementation of the strategy and performance against the Group's strategic objectives by the executive leadership team through its Committees who have specific delegated tasks
- The Shareholder has also enabled the work of the Board by ensuring that it is fully constituted with the right level of skills and diversity that is required to lead Necsa into the future
- Ethical leadership and transparency is important in the functions of the Board hence our commitment to reporting our activities and impacts in terms of profits, people and planet to our Shareholder on a quarterly basis and to Parliament annually
- Stability at leadership levels and in employee relations has seen the Necsa Group ending the year profitable with an unqualified audit opinion. As the Board we are committed in growing revenue and financial stability while remaining safe for our people, property and the environment
